NUMB. 2090

TUESDAY, MARCH 2. 1742.

11° 2090.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Vienna, Feb. 24.

HE Day before Yesterday we had Advice by an Express, that the King of Prussia after leaving some thousand Men to besiege Spielberg, had march'd with a great Body of Forces towards Znaim, on the Frontiers of Lower Austria; and that the Terror of this March made the Inhabitants of the Fat Country fly on all Sides towards the Danube with their best Effects. Upon this Intelligence the Court immediately gave Orders to form a Flying Camp near Gens, and have dispatch'd Orders to Count Kevenhuller, to send immediately 10000 Men of his best Troops to the Relief of this City. This Morning arriv'd two Couriers, one from Bavaria, who brought Advice that General Steutz had enter'd Bavaria from Tyrol, with a great Body of Militia as well as Regular Troops; and after taking the strong Castle of Rosenheim, was in full March for Munich, where Count Kevenhuller had established his Head Quarters. The other Express came from Italy, and from his Dispatches we learn, that the Spanish General, the Duke de Montemar, upon Advice that the King of Sardinia's Forces were ready to enter the Duchy of Milan, had suspended his March till the Return of a Courier dispatch'd by him to Turin. According to a List lately publish'd, the Army advancing out of Hungary consists of 56,660 Regular Troops, exclusive of Hussars and Croats.

Frankfort, March 4. The Emperor applies himself with great Assiduity to Publick Affairs. He spends usually four or five Hours in the Morning in the Cabinet, and afterwards dines in Publick. It is said that several Princes of the Empire have resolv'd to raise Regiments to march to the Relief of Bavaria, in compliance to his Imperial Majesty, who has given the Command of the Auxiliary Troops furnish'd by the Circle of Swabia to Count Seckendorff, from whom great Things are expected. The Coronation of the Empress remains fix'd for the 8th instant. This is all Court News, and such as it is desir'd the World should see and read; but the Truth is, that both the Emperor and Empress are so thoroughly sensible of the Misfortunes of their Subjects, that they are in a manner inconsolable, and the whole Court wears an Aspect melancholy beyond Expression. What contributes the more to this, is the Sense their Imperial Majesties have of the riveted Aversion even of their own Subjects to French Assistance, which has been one great Cause of the Loss of their Hereditary Dominions.

Ratisbon, March 1. The French and Bavarian Garrison which had evacuated Lintz halted here, and the Count de Segur wrote from hence a Letter to the Field Marshal Count Kevenhuller, importuning, 'that tho' it was stipulated that this Garrison should not suffer on their March by the Austrian Hussars, yet they had been harassed to the utmost of their Power, and that they had even plundered their Baggage and fallen upon a Part of it; but that he believ'd his Excellency too strict an Observer of the Laws of War, to permit such an Infraction of a solemn Capitulation to pass with Impunity.' To this Letter Count Segur added an exact Account of the Damages done by the Hussars, and took at the same time a Resolution of waiting here for an Answer to that Letter. It arrived a few Days after, and Count Kevenhuller informs that General therein, 'that upon the Receipt of his Complaint he had caus'd the strictest Enquiry possible to be made into the Fact, and he found with great Regret that the French and Bavarian Troops had been extremely harassed by the Hussars; that it was to be presumed they had no Knowledge of the Capitulation, or at least of the Terms on which it was concluded, but however till things could be more thoroughly enquired into, he was content to indemnify the French and Bavarians for what they had already suffered, deferring the Count de Segur to settle it on moderate Terms.' It being accordingly fixed at 6000 Florins, Count Kevenhuller readily undertook to cause the same to be paid at Donawer, causing also Notice to be given to all the Officers of Hussars and Pandours to forbear giving the least Interruption to those Troops on their March, under pain of the severest Chastisement. This Matter being thus regulated, Count Segur continued his March towards Donawer, with the Troops under his Command. We have also Advice, that the heavy Artillery being arrived before the City of Straubingen, the Garrison had capitulated, and the Place was in the Hands of the Austrians; and that Count Kevenhuller had transferred his Head Quarters to Munich on the 26th of last Month, where it was conceived he would continue for some time.

Dusseldorf, March 6. It is reported here, that the French Troops canton'd in our Neighbourhood will very shortly form a Camp between Geider and Nimeguen, in the very same Place where the Army of France incamp'd in the late War, when the Marshal de Maillebois serv'd as a Lieutenant Colonel; and they add, that in that Case a fresh Body of French Troops will be sent hither, which are to form a Flying-Camp in order to cover the Passages of the Rhine. The French are actually preparing several hundred Tents, which are to be ready by the 5th of April. We have just now receiv'd Advice, that in case our Elector sends any Succours into Bavaria, Count Kevenhuller has Orders to put the Duchy of Neubourg under Contribution. We see here the Route of the French Forces that are marching into Bavaria; according to which, they are to be 19 Days in passing from Fort Lewis to Donawer, where it is computed they will arrive on the 11th of this Month; yet most People are of Opinion, that at least a Week longer should be allowed them.

Turin, Feb. 19. His Majesty not having judged it proper to embrace the Offers made him by the King of Spain, has been pleas'd to give Orders that the Archives and other Papers of State relating to the Duchy of Savoy should be removed from Chambery hither. It is said, that a peremptory Answer being demanded from his Majesty as to the Part he would take in the present War against the Queen of Hungary, he replied, that he meant to take none at all, but that he conceived the Balance of Power to be well settled in Italy at present, and could not help taking for his Enemies any who should attempt to alter it. Orders were this Day given for all Officers to repair to their Posts, and for the Forces to hold themselves ready to march at an Hour's Warning.

Paris, March 2. The Court is in the utmost Confusion, and 'tis far from being difficult to perceive that two Things cause there very great Disquiet. The first is the Disposition of the Dutch, which appears to be every Day less and less favourable to France. Last Week a Courier was sent to the Marquis de Fenelon, Ambassador to the States: As to the Contents of his Dispatches, we know not what they were; but this is certain, that they were of the last Importance, and that the Council were a long time employ'd in drawing them up. The other Subject of our Chagrin is the Situation of Affairs in Germany, which is so very bad that the Court rather chuses to be silent upon than to endeavour to extenuate them. It is however known that they have some Suspicion of a certain Prince, notwithstanding his zealous Declarations, and are apprehensive that he does not push Things with the utmost Vigour in favour of his Allies. On the other hand they are amaz'd at the Firmness of the Queen of Hungary, the Contempt she has shewn for the Threats, and the little Stretts she lays on the Promises of France. They are at their Wits End to know whence she expects Support, and how she finds Money to defray the mighty Expence she is at. In the Midst of these Perplexities they have Advice from Italy, that not only the King of Sardinia is himself in the Interest of her Hungarian Majesty, but that he has also engaged the State of Venice to furnish 20000 Men, who are to act for the Defence of Italy. They are likewise apprized that a Treaty is negotiating with that Prince, by which it will be stipulated, that he shall marry the Archduchess Mary-Anne, and have with her in Dowry the Duchy of Milan; in consideration of this he is to employ his whole Force in defending the rest of the Austrian Dominions in Italy. To make things still worse, our Accounts from Sweden are by no means pleasing; the War is to go on, because the Terms we promised the Swedes cannot be obtained for them; and if they should have the Misfortune to be beat again by the Russians, as very possibly they may, we know not what Consequences may follow. In the mean time the Persons employed in the War-Office have not time to eat or to sleep, and which is more uneasy for the News-Writers, cannot spare a Moment to answer a Question. All we know is, that a new Army of 6000 Men is to be form'd, that there is to be a Camp near Dunkirk, and that the Troops which are to compose it are already on their March. Cardinal Fleury is very much indispos'd, which is attributed to his indefatigable Application in this critical Conjuncture, when Affairs grow more and more serious every Day.

Hague, March 7. All our Advices from the Frontiers of France mention such extraordinary Levies as were never heard of. In the Duchy of Lorraine, there are to be immediately assembled 15500 Men; and in the Duchy of Bar, the Inhabitants of which never paid any Capitation Tax, the Sum of 200000 Livres has been demanded in 48 Hours. We have here some very strange Reports, in which if there be the least Spice of Truth, our Augmentation was not resolv'd upon before it was necessary. It is not to be expressed how joyful every Body appears here at the News they have from England, that the Nation is generally dispos'd to support the Queen of Hungary, whose Cause appears every day more and more to be that of Liberty, and the common Safety of Europe.

The THIRD EDITION OF

A New Guide to the English Tongue. In Five Parts. Containing,

I. Words both common and proper, from one to six Syllables: The several Sorts of Monosyllables in the common Words being distinguished by Tables, into Words of two, three, and four Letters, &c. with six short Lessons at the End of each Table, not exceeding the Order of Syllables in the foregoing Tables. The several Sorts of Polysyllables also, being ranged in proper Tables, have their Syllables divided, and Directions placed at the Head of each Table for the Accent, to prevent false Pronunciation; together with the like Number of Lessons on the foregoing Tables, placed at the End of each Table, as far as to Words of four Syllables, for the easier and more speedy Way of teaching Children to Read.

II. A large and useful Table of Words, that are the same in Sound, but different in Signification; very necessary to prevent writing one Word for another of the same Sound.

III. A short but comprehensive Grammar of the English Tongue, delivered in the most familiar and instructive Method of Question and Answer; necessary for all such Persons as have the Advantage only of an English Education.

IV. An useful Collection of Sentences in Prose and Verse, Divine, Moral, and Historical; together with a select Number of Fables, adorn'd with proper Sculptures, for the better Improvement of the Young Beginner. And

V. Forms of Prayer for Children, on several Occasions.

The Whole, being recommended by several Clergymen and eminent Schoolmasters, as the most useful Performance for the Instruction of Youth, is design'd for the Use of Schools in Great Britain and Ireland.

An Infallible CURE

For Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men,
By Superlative ENLIVENING DROPS;
Which in a few Days render both Sexes Prolific in a most wonderful Manner.

Hundreds of Ladies who were deem'd incurably Barren, and very many who thought themselves three or four Doses of them only; and vast Numbers of Gentlemen by taking them, have presently become capable of propagating their Species, who before, thro' either Infertility or Age, imagin'd it impossible.

They almost instantly renovate the vital Ferment of the Blood and Juices, rectify the languid State of all the Fluids, rouse, invigorate, and increase the Spirits, invigorate the Nerves, restore juvenile Warmth, and cause a sparkling Gladness and ardent Courage to flow in the Heart, and expand itself thro' the whole human System, so as sensibly to enliven and invigorate all the animal Faculties, and corroborate or strengthen the whole Body, as well as the Pan appropriated to Generation, and do infallibly cure Barrenness in one Sex, and Impotency in the other, from what Cause soever proceeding, as Thousands have experienced.

They are also pleasant to take, are cordial to the Stomach, create an Appetite, and procure a good Digestion, beyond any thing known in the World. And are to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard, in the Strand, Price 5 s. the Bottle, with Directions.

The most Fam'd and long Experienced Chymical Drops

For ASTHMA's and CONSUMPTIONS, That have been Sold so many Years, and with such uncommon Success and Benefit to the Publick, by Mr. Parry, and his Predecessors, in Boar's-Head-Court, Fleet-street; and, since Mr. Parry's Death, have been and still are sold in London only by Mr. Read for 3s. 6d. a Vial, at his House in White-Fryars. (N.B. You may in just by the Sun Tavern in Fleet-street, and it's the great Corner House in White-Fryars; JAMES READ, in great Letters, is wrote over the Door.) They are a most Incomparable and never-failing Medicine for the immediate Relief and perfect Cure of the confirmed ASTHMA of the longest standing: And of all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, even when so far advanced, as not to be cured by any other Medicine in the World.

FOR their Virtues vastly exceed any Thing that ever was published, or even known in the whole World, in the Cure of the worst ASTHMA's and CONSUMPTIONS of all Sorts, Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, &c.

They instantly relieve the Patient in the most suffocating Fit of an ASTHMA, and make a perfect Cure in a very short Time; for they gently open the Breast, and immediately give Liberty of Breathing, without danger of taking Cold; they admirably allay the Tickling, which provokes frequent Coughing, and take off the uneasy Sensation of asthmatic Humours, cleanse the small Glands, relax the Fibres, and thereby enlarge the Capacities of the Vessels; thus they regularly and quickly Cure the most obstinate ASTHMA of the longest standing.

They speedily and to Admiration cure all Sorts of Consumption, Ulcers of the Lungs, &c. removing all Obstruction of the Breast, and Lungs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Soreness, Shortness of Breath, and all the usual Symptoms which attend the Beginnings of a Consumption; and, if taken in time, will infallibly prevent one when feated. They are also exceeding nutritive and strengthening to Persons of weakly Constitution, and have no other sensible Operation than to occasion a gentle Breathing in the Night.

And by Parity of Reasoning this most excellent Medicine is (and is well known to be) the most sovereign Remedy in the World for those troublesome spending Coughs, which many are severely troubled with Night and Morning; and also for the Chin-Cough, and Hooping-Cough in Children, having cured Thousands; is so agreeable, and so few Drops to a Dose, that Children take them with Pleasure, and without any Confinement.

In short, these unparalleled Chymical Drops are the most infallible Remedy that ever was known (and therefore we desist the faint Efforts of all Counterfeitors or Imitators) for the Ailments above-mentioned, and allowed to be so by the Judicious amongst the Learned in Physick; and confirmed by the largest Experience in private Practice, and are made Publick for Common Good.

N. B. They are sent to many Parts of the World, particularly to his Majesty's Colonies in the West Indies, &c.

Good Allowance is given by the Dozen to sell them again. They will keep good many Years, well cork'd, in any Climate.
